Mary C. Earle

Topic: Celtic Spirituality

Mary is a writer, poet, retreat leader and Episcopal priest. Her ministry focuses on spiritual direction, contemplative prayer, and interfaith dialogue.

*Mary is the author of The Desert Mothers: Spiritual Practices from Women of the Wilderness, Beginning Again: Benedictine Wisdom for Living with Illness and Broken Body, Healing Spirit: Lectio Divina and Living With Illness. Her other works include Holy Companions: Spiritual Practices from the Celtic Saints and Praying With The Celtic Saints, both coauthored with Sylvia Maddox.*

She and her husband, Doug, live in San Antonio with their three border collies, Maggie, Graford and Fiona, their six-toed cat, Cuthbert, and a "grand-cat" named Leftovers.

Mary comes highly recommended from J. Philip Newell.

William Loyd Allen

Topic: The History of Christian Spirituality

Dr. Allen holds the Sylvan Hills Chair of Baptist Heritage and is Professor of Church History and Spiritual Formation at McAfee.

In 2000, he spent ten months reading in Celtic Christianity while on sabbatical at South Wales Baptist College.

*Dr. Allen has published a book, entitled "Crossroads in Christian Growth", about faith development in crises. A quick internet search of the numerous journal articles he has published include: "Intentional Protestant Monastic Communities," in One in Christ, and other articles on spirituality.*

His personal life revolves around his family and church. His wife, Libby, works in the admissions office at McAfee, and his daughter, Clare, is a college student.

William comes highly recommended from participants in the "Two-Year Academy".
